CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BY:  DEPUTY

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

VIASAT, INC., a Delaware Corporation,
Plaintiff and Counter-Defendant,
v.
ACACIA COMMUNICATIONS, INC., a
Delaware corporation,
Defendant and Counter-Claimant.

Case No.: 3:16-cv-00463-BEN-JMA

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART MOTIONS TO FILE UNDER SEAL

[Doc. Nos. 73, 81, 84, 87, 90, 92, 96,
101, 104, 107, 117, 123, 133, 136, 139,
142, 146, 149, 154, 164]

Before the Court is Plaintiff ViaSat, Inc. (“ViaSat”) and Defendant Acacia Communications, Inc.’s (“Acacia”) numerous Motions to Seal. Specifically, there are twenty Motions seeking to seal 8,774 pages of the public record. The Court addresses all of the Motions to Seal in this Order.

I. The Right of Access to Judicial Records

In Nixon v. Warner Communications, Inc., 435 U.S. 589 (1978), the Supreme Court recognized that the public has “a general right to inspect and copy public records and documents, including judicial records and documents.” Id. at 597. The main reason for this general right is to accommodate “the citizen’s desire to keep a watchful eye on the workings of . . . government.” Id. at 598. However, the Supreme Court also stated, “the right to inspect and copy judicial records is not absolute.” Id. at 589. “Every court

1 has supervisory power over its own records and files, and access has been denied where 2 court files might have become a vehicle for improper purposes,” such as “to gratify
3 private spite or promote public scandal,” or to serve as a source of “business information
4 that might harm a litigant’s competitive standing.” Id. (internal citations omitted).

5 Except for certain documents “traditionally kept secret,” federal courts begin a 6 sealing analysis with “a strong presumption in favor of access to court records.” Foltz v.
7 State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 331 F.3d 1122, 1135 (9th Cir. 2003). A party seeking to 8 seal a judicial record then bears the burden of overcoming this strong presumption by 9 meeting the “compelling reasons” standard. Id.; Kamakana v. City & Cnty. of Honolulu,
10 447 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir. 2006) (applying compelling reasons standard to dispositive
11 motions); DISH Network, L.L.C. v. Sonicview USA, Inc., No. 09-cv-1553-L, 2009 WL 12 2579052, at *1 (S.D. Cal. Aug. 20, 2009) (treating motion for preliminary injunction as 13 dispositive for sealing analysis because the motion directly addresses the merits and seeks 14 injunctive relief before trial). That is, the party must “articulate [] compelling reasons
15 supported by specific factual findings,” Foltz, 331 F.3d at 1135, that outweigh the general 16 history of access and the public policies favoring disclosure, such as the “public interest
17 in understanding the judicial process,” Hagestad v. Tragesser, 49 F.3d 1430, 1434 (9th 18 Cir. 1995).

19 “The mere fact that the production of records may lead to a litigant’s 20 embarrassment, incrimination, or exposure to further litigation will not, without more,
21 compel the court to seal its records.” Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1179. A party must satisfy 22 the compelling reasons standard even if the motion, or its attachments, was previously 23 filed under seal or protective order. Foltz, 331 F.3d at 1136 (“[T]he presumption of 24 access is not rebutted where . . . documents subject to a protective order are filed under 25 seal as attachments to a dispositive motion.”). Moreover “[s]imply mentioning a general 26 category of privilege, without further elaboration or any specific linkage with the 27 documents, does not satisfy the burden.” Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1184. A party’s failure 28

1 to meet the burden of articulating specific facts showing a “compelling reason” means
2 that the “default posture of public access prevails.” Id. at 1182.

3 In turn, the court must “conscientiously balance [] the competing interests” of the 4 public and the party who seeks to keep certain judicial records secret. Foltz, 331 F.3d at 5 1135. After considering these interests, if the court decides to seal certain judicial 6 records, it must “base its decision on a compelling reason and articulate the factual basis
7 for its ruling, without relying on hypothesis or conjecture.” Hagestad, 49 F.3d at 1434
8 (citing Valley Broadcasting Co. v. U.S. Dist. Ct., 798 F.2d 1289, 1295 (9th Cir.1986)).

9 In ruling on motions to seal, this Court has recognized that “compelling reasons
10 sufficient to outweigh the public’s interest in disclosure and justify sealing court records 11 exist when such court files might . . . become a vehicle for improper purposes, such as the 12 use of records to . . . release trade secrets.” Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1179. A “trade secret
13 may consist of any formula, pattern, device or compilation of information which is used 14 in one’s business, and which gives him an opportunity to obtain an advantage over 15 competitors who do not know or use it.” Restatement of Torts § 757 cmt. b.

16 Similarly, other “sources of business information that might harm a litigant’s
17 competitive standing” may also constitute a compelling reason to seal, see Nixon, 435
18 U.S. at 598, as a company’s confidential profit, cost, and pricing information if publicly 19 disclosed could put the company at a competitive disadvantage, see Apple, Inc. v.
20 Samsung Elec. Co., 727 F.3d 1214, 1225 (Fed. Cir. 2013) (“[I]t seems clear that if 21 Apple’s and Samsung’s suppliers have access to their profit, cost, and margin data, it 22 could give the suppliers an advantage in contract negotiations, which they could use to 23 extract price increases for components.”).

1 II. Discussion

2 A. Plaintiff's Motions to Seal

3 ViaSat has filed twelve Motions to Seal. The Motions are unopposed and Plaintiff
4 asserts that all documents sought to be sealed in each Motion have been designated as 5 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY"
6 pursuant to the Stipulated Protective Order (Doc. No. 29), meaning that disclosure would 7 harm the competitive standing of the parties. The Court will review each motion in turn.

8 1. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/2/18 – (Doc. No. 87.)

9 Motion for Summary Judgment

10 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Motion for Summary Judgment
11 ("Motion") on Acacia's Counterclaim for Patent Misappropriation and Exhibits 4 and 5
12 to the Declaration of Erika H. Warren in support of their motion.<sup>1</sup> The Court finds that 13 Plaintiff has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions of the Motion and 14 Exhibits that contain technical information that, if disclosed, would place the designating 15 party at a competitive disadvantage.

16 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs Motion to Seal and hereby ORDERS the 17 Motion and Exhibits 4-5 to the Declaration of Erika H. Warren in support of the motion 18 be filed under seal.<sup>2</sup>

19 2. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/2/18 – (Doc. No. 92.)

20 Motion to Exclude Expert Testimony

21 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Motion to Exclude Expert
22 Testimony ("Motion"), Exhibits 2-8 and 10-17 to the Declaration of Patrick M. Shields,
23 and the Declaration of Dr. Russell Fuerst in support of their motion.<sup>3</sup> The Court finds

24 _____
25 <sup>1</sup> Plaintiff simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Motion for Summary Judgment
26 with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 89.)

28 <sup>3</sup> Plaintiff simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Motion to Exclude Expert
Testimony with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 95.)

1 that Plaintiff has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions of the Motion,
2 Declarations, and Exhibits that contain business and technical information that, if
3 disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

4 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs Motion to Seal and hereby ORDERS the
5 Motion, Exhibits 2-8, 10-17 to the Declaration of Patrick M. Shields, and the Declaration
6 of Dr. Russell Fuerst be filed under seal.<sup>4</sup>

7 3. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/2/18 – (Doc. No. 96.)

8 Motion for Partial Summary Judgment

9 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Motion for Partial Summary
10 Judgment (“Motion”) and Exhibits 1-18, 23-59 to the Declaration of Kenneth M.
11 Fitzgerald in support of their motion.<sup>5</sup> The Court finds that Plaintiff has narrowly 12 tailored its request to seal the Motion and Exhibits 1-18, 23, and 27-59 to only those 13 portions that contain business and technical information that, if disclosed, would place
14 the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

15 However, after reviewing Exhibits 24<sup>6</sup> and 25<sup>7</sup>, the Court is not persuaded the 16 information warrants sealing both reports entirely under the compelling reasons standard.
17 Namely, Plaintiff does not provide a “particularized showing” that “specific prejudice or 18 harm will result” if excerpts from the reports are publicly disclosed. See Foltz, 331 F.3d
19 at 1130. Plaintiff asserts the reports contain sensitive information about ViaSat’s trade
20 secrets, Acacia’s accused products and other business and technical information.
21 Nevertheless, Plaintiff’s explanation for sealing the reports is generalized in nature and 22 does not account for why multiple pages of an academic, professional and presumably 23 historical product or service background should be redacted. Requests to seal must be

25 <sup>4</sup> See Doc. Nos. 94; 94-2 to 94-8; 94-10 to 94-17.
26

27 Plaintiff simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Motion for Partial Summary
28 Judgment with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 98.)

1 narrowly tailored, Plaintiffs request is not. Portions of each exhibit are sealable, but not 2 the entire reports.

3 Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part, and DENIES in part Plaintiffs Motion to 4 Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Motion and Exhibits 1-18, 23, 27-59 to the 5 Declaration of Kenneth M. Fitzgerald in support of the motion filed under seal.<sup>8</sup> The 6 Court further DENIES Plaintiff's request to Seal Exhibits 24 and 25.

4. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/6/18 – (Doc. No. 101.)

Opposition to Acacia's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment

9 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Opposition to Defendant's Motion
10 for Partial Summary Judgment Regarding Damages ("Opposition") and Exhibits 1, 3-34, 11 and 36-44 to the Declaration of Patrick M. Shields in support of their Opposition.<sup>9</sup> The 12 Court finds that Plaintiff has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions of 13 the Opposition and Exhibits 1, 5-11, 13-14, 16-30, 32-34, 37-39, and 41-44 that contain 14 business and technical information that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at 15 a competitive disadvantage.

16 The Plaintiff has not persuaded the Court the information contained in Exhibits 3-17 4, 12, 15, 31, 36, and 40 warrant sealing the reports entirely. Exhibit 3 is a copy of the 18 Rebuttal Expert Report of Dr. Ivan Djordjevic; Exhibit 4 is a copy of the Opening Expert
19 Report of Dr. Krishna Narayanan; Exhibit 12 is a copy of the Expert Report of Dr.
20 Alexander Vardy; Exhibit 15 is a copy of the Expert Report of Stephen D. Prowse, Ph.D., 21 CFA; Exhibit 31 is a copy of the Rebuttal Expert Report regarding Damages of Brent K.
22 Bersin; Exhibit 36 is a copy of the Preliminary Affirmative Expert Report Regarding 23 Damages of Brent K. Bersin. Plaintiffs seek to seal the full reports because they <sup>27</sup> <sup>8</sup> See Doc. Nos. 97; 97-1 to 97-18; 97-23; 97-27 to 97-59.

<sup>27</sup> Plaintiff simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Opposition with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 103.)

1 allegedly contain sensitive information about ViaSat's trade secrets, Acacia's accused
2 products and other business and technical information.

3 As with its previous Motions to Seal, Plaintiff has failed to make the necessary
4 showing to justify sealing the exhibits entirely. Plaintiff's explanation is generalized and 5 insufficient. No "particularized showing" of "specific prejudice or harm" would result if 6 public disclosure was made. (Id.) Finally, Plaintiff fails to explain why multiple pages of 7 an academic, professional and presumably historical product or service background
8 should be redacted. Without more, the request to seal cannot be granted.

9 Exhibit 40 is a copy of Exhibit 563 from the deposition of Christian Rasmussen.
10 The Motion to Seal states Exhibit 40 contains information that Acacia identified as 11 confidential. No additional reason is given to justify sealing the Exhibit. Conclusory or 12 blanket assertions to seal a document are not enough to satisfy the compelling reasons
13 standard. Moreover, because the Court is precluded from hypothesizing or assuming that 14 a compelling reason exists, Plaintiff will not be permitted to redact this information as 15 submitted.

16 Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Plaintiffs Motion to 17 Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Opposition and Exhibits 1, 5-11, 13-14, 16-30, 32-
18 34, 37-39, and 41-44 to the Declaration in support be filed under seal.<sup>10</sup> The Court
19 further DENIES Plaintiff's request to Seal Exhibits 3-4, 12, 15, 31, 36, and 40.

20 5. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/12/18 – (Doc. No. 104.)

21 Opposition to Acacia's Motion for Preliminary Injunction

22 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Opposition to Defendant's Motion
23 for Summary Judgment Regarding No Liability ("Opposition") and Exhibits 5-39 to the

25
26

27
28 <sup>10</sup> See Doc. Nos. 102; 102-1; 102-5 to 102-11; 102-13 to 102-14; 102-16 to 102-30; 102-32 to 102-34; 102-37 to 102-39; and 102-41 to 102-44.

1 Declaration of Kenneth M. Fitzgerald in support their Opposition.<sup>11</sup> The Court finds that
2 Plaintiff has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions of the Opposition
3 and Exhibits 5-16 and 21-39 that contain business, financial and technical information
4 that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

5 The Court is not convinced the information contained in Exhibits 17-20 warrants
6 sealing the reports entirely. Exhibit 17 is a copy of the Expert Report of Professor
7 Krishna Narayanan; Exhibit 18 is a copy of the Expert Report of Dr. Alexander Vardy;
8 Exhibit 19 is a copy of the Expert Report of Dr. Marwan Hassoun; Exhibit 20 is a copy of 9 the Expert Report of Stephen D. Prowse, Ph.D., CFA.

10 Again, Plaintiff has not made the necessary showing to justify sealing the exhibits
11 entirely. Plaintiff's explanation is generalized with no "particularized showing" of 12 "specific prejudice or harm." Finally, Plaintiff fails to explain why multiple pages of 13 non-confidential information should be sealed. Without more, the request to seal cannot 14 be granted. Portions of each report are sealable, but not each report in its entirety.

15 Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Plaintiffs Motion to 16 Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Opposition and Exhibits 5-16 and 21-39 to the 17 Declaration in support be filed under seal.<sup>12</sup> The Court further DENIES Plaintiff's
18 request to seal Exhibits 17-20.

19 6. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/19/18 – (Doc. No. 123.)

20 ViaSat's Motion for Summary Judgment

21 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal its Corrected Memorandum in Support of ViaSat's
22 Motion for Summary Judgment on Acacia's Counterclaim for Patent Misappropriation 23 ("Corrected Memorandum 1"); its Corrected Memorandum of Points and Authorities in 24 Support of ViaSat's Motion to Exclude Expert Testimony ("Corrected Memorandum 2");

25
26
27 <sup>11</sup> Plaintiff simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Opposition with the motion to
28 seal. (Doc. No. 106.)

<sup>12</sup> See Doc Nos. 105; 105-5 to 105-16; 105-21 to 105-39.

1 and Exhibit F and G to ViaSat's Ex Parte Application for Leave to Correct Errors in its 2 Motions for Summary Judgment and to Exclude Expert Testimony.<sup>13</sup> The Court has 3 reviewed the Corrected Memoranda and Exhibits and deems them narrowly tailored to 4 seal only those portions that contain business, financial and technical information that, if
5 disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

6 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs Motion to Seal and hereby ORDERS
7 Corrected Memoranda 1 and 2, and Exhibits F and G filed under seal. Notably, the 8 information sought to be sealed in this Motion was previously granted in Docket
9 Numbers 87 and 92.

10 7. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/26/18 – (Doc. Nos. 133.)

11 Reply in Support of Motion for Partial Summary Judgment

12 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Reply Memorandum of Points and 13 Authorities in Support of Motion for Partial Summary Judgment ("Reply") and Exhibits
14 60-63 to the Reply Declaration of Kenneth M. Fitzgerald in support of the Motion.<sup>14</sup> The 15 Court finds that Plaintiff has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions of 16 the Reply and Exhibits 60-63 that contain business, financial and technical information
17 that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

18 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs Motion to Seal. The Court hereby 19 ORDERS the Reply and Exhibits 60-63 to the Declaration in support be filed under 20 seal.<sup>15</sup>

23 ///

24 _____
25 <sup>13</sup> Plaintiff simultaneously filed redacted versions of Corrected Memorandum 1, 2,
26 Exhibits F, and G with the motion to seal. (Doc. Nos. 124-25.)

27 <sup>14</sup> Plaintiff simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Reply in Support of Partial 28 Summary Judgment with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 135.)

1           8.     Motion to File Under Seal, 2/26/18 – (Doc. No. 136.)

2                   Opposition to Acacia's Motion to Strike

3           Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Opposition to Acacia's Motion to 4           Strike and Exclude Certain Opinions of ViaSat's Experts ("Opposition") and Exhibits 1-3
5           and 5-6 to the Declaration of Matthew S. Warren in Support of their Opposition. The
6           Court finds that Plaintiff has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions of 7           the Opposition and Exhibits 1-3, and 6 that contain business, financial and technical 8           information that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive
9           disadvantage.

10          Plaintiff has not swayed the Court that the information contained in Exhibit 5
11          warrants sealing. The exhibit is a copy of an email exchange between multiple named 12          parties that Acacia claims contain information designated as "HIGHLY 13          CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY." The exchange does not appear to 14          include product business, financial, or technical specifications that would justify sealing
15          it. No other justification for sealing the Exhibit is provided. Merely stating that an item
16          is "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY" is insufficient. Without 17          more, the request to seal cannot be granted.

18          Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Plaintiffs Motion to 19          Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Opposition and Exhibits 1-3 and 6 to the 20          Declaration in support filed under seal.<sup>16</sup> The Court further DENIES Plaintiff's request
21          to seal Exhibit 5.

22           9.     Motion to File Under Seal, 2/26/18 – (Doc. No. 139.)

23                   Reply in Support of ViaSat's Motion to Exclude

24          Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Reply Memorandum in Support of 25          ViaSat's Motion to Exclude Expert Testimony ("Reply") and Exhibits 18-23 to the Reply

3 only those portions of the Reply and Exhibits that contain business, financial and
4 technical information that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a
5 competitive disadvantage.

6 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs Motion to Seal. The Court hereby 7 ORDERS the Reply and Exhibits 18-23 to the Declaration in support filed under seal.<sup>18</sup>

8 10. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/26/18 – (Doc. No. 142.)

9 Memorandum in Support of Motion for Summary Judgment

10 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of the Reply Memorandum in Support of 11 their Motion for Summary Judgment on Acacia's Counterclaim for Patent 12 Misappropriation ("Reply").<sup>19</sup> The Court finds that Plaintiff has narrowly tailored its 13 request to seal to only those portions of the Reply that contain business, financial and 14 technical information that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a
15 competitive disadvantage.

16 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs Motion to Seal. The Court hereby

4 that contain business, financial and technical trade secret information that, if disclosed,
5 would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

6 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs Motion to Seal. The Court hereby 7 ORDERS the Opposition, Exh. 1-RF, Exh. 1-CR, and Exhibits 3-20 to the Declaration of 8 David Beckwith in support filed under seal.<sup>22</sup>

12. Motion to File Under Seal, 5/7/18 – (Doc. No. 164.)

Memorandum of Contentions of Fact and Law

11 Plaintiff seeks to file under seal portions of its Memorandum of Contentions of 12 Fact and Law (“Memorandum”) and Exhibit A to the memorandum.<sup>23</sup> The Court finds 13 that Plaintiff has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions of the 14 Memorandum and Exhibit A that contain business, financial and technical information
15 that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

16 Therefore, the Court GRANTS the Plaintiffs Motion. The Court hereby ORDERS
17 the Memorandum and Exhibit A to the Memorandum filed under seal.<sup>24</sup>

B. Defendants' Motions to Seal

19 Defendant Acacia has filed eight Motions to Seal. The Motions are unopposed and 20 Defendant asserts that all the documents sought to be sealed in each Motion have been
21 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS”

<sup>27</sup> Plaintiff simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Memorandum with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 166.)

3 1. Motion to File Under Seal, 1/17/18 – (Doc. No. 73.)

4 Motion for Partial Summary Judgment

5 Defendant seeks to file under seal portions of its Motion for Partial Summary
6 Judgment Regarding Damages ("Partial MSJ") and Exhibits 2-3, 5-11 to the Declaration
7 of Stuart V. C. Duncan Smith in support of their Motion.<sup>25</sup> The Court finds that
8 Defendant has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only the portions of the Partial MSJ
9 and Exhibits 3, 5-7, 9-11 that contain business, financial and technical information that, if 10 disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

11 However, Defendant has not demonstrated a compelling reason to overcome the 12 presumption of public access to judicial records to justify sealing Exhibits 2 and 8.
13 Exhibit 2 is a copy of the Expert Report of Stephen D. Prowse, Ph.D., CFA, and Exhibit 14 8 is a copy of the Rebuttal Expert Report Regarding Damages of Brent K. Bersin. To 15 begin with, Defendant's explanation is generalized with no "particularized showing" of 16 "specific prejudice or harm" that would arise from disclosure. Moreover, Defendant fails
17 to explain why multiple pages of non-confidential information should be sealed. Without 18 more, a request to seal cannot be granted.

19 Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Defendants Motion to 20 Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Partial MSJ and Exhibits 3, 5-7, 9-11 to the 21 Declaration in support filed under seal.<sup>26</sup> The Court further DENIES Defendants request
22 to Seal Exhibits 2 and 8.

2. Motion to File Under Seal, 1/26/18 – (Doc. No. 81.)

Motion for Summary Judgment

Defendant seeks to file under seal portions of its Motion for Summary Judgment Regarding No Liability (“Motion”) and Exhibits 2, 5-6, 8, 13-24, 26-30, and 33-41 to the Declaration of Stuart V. C. Duncan Smith in support of their Motion.<sup>27</sup> The Court finds Defendant has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only the portions of the Motion and Exhibits 5, 13, 17-23, 27-30, and 33-41 that contain business, financial and technical trade secret information that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

The Court is not persuaded the information contained in Exhibits 2, 8, 14, 15, 16, 24, 26 warrant sealing. Exhibit 2 is a copy of the Expert Report of Stephen D. Prowse, P.D., CFA; Exhibit 8 is a copy of the Rebuttal Expert Report Regarding Damages of Brent K. Bersin; Exhibit 14 is a copy of the Rebuttal Report of Professor Ivan Djordjevic, Ph.D.; Exhibit 15 is a copy of the Expert Report of Dr. Alexander Vardy; Exhibit 16 is a copy of the Opening Expert Report of Professor Krishna Narayanan, Ph.D.; Exhibit 24 is a copy of the Expert Report of Dr. Richard W. Koralek; and Exhibit 26 is a copy of the Opening Report of Dr. Marwan Hassoun.

Defendant seeks to seal all of the expert reports alleging that each contains sensitive information that ViaSat has designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” as well as information that is Third Party Highly Confidential. This includes documents produced by third parties in the course of litigation, confidential business and financial information regarding product sales, royalty payments, and an assessment on the value of the technology and products at issue in this case. Defendants explanation is insufficient to justify sealing each report in its entirety. Moreover, their explanation is merely a generalized response with no “particularized

<sup>27</sup> Defendant simultaneously filed a redacted version of the MSJ with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 83.)

1 showing" of "specific prejudice or harm." Lastly, Defendant fails to explain why
2 multiple pages of non-confidential information should be sealed. Without more, the 3 request to seal cannot be granted.

4 Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Defendants Motion to 5 Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Motion and Exhibits 5, 13, 17-23, 27-30, 33-41 to 6 the Declaration in support filed under seal.<sup>28</sup> The Court further DENIES Defendants
7 request to Seal Exhibits 2, 8, 14-16, 24, and 26.

8                   3.     Motion to File Under Seal, 2/1/18 – (Doc. No. 84.)

9                   Motion to Strike and Exclude Certain Opinions

10                  Defendant seeks to file under seal portions of its Motion to Strike and Exclude 11 Certain Opinions ("Motion") and Exhibits 2, 14-16, and 42-49 to the Third Declaration of 12 Stuart V. C. Duncan Smith in Support of their Motion.<sup>29</sup> The Court finds that Defendant
13 has narrowly tailored its request to Seal to only those portions of the Motion and Exhibits 14 16, and 43-48 that contain business and technical information that, if disclosed would 15 place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

16                  The Court is not persuaded the information contained in Exhibits 2, 14, 15, 42 and 17 49 warrants sealing. Exhibit 2 is a copy of the Expert Report of Stephen D. Prowse,
18 Ph.D., CFA; Exhibit 14 is a copy of the Rebuttal Report of Professor Ivan Djordjevic,
19 Ph.D.; Exhibit 15 is a copy of the Expert Report of Dr. Alexander Vardy; Exhibit 42 is a 20 copy of the Rebuttal Expert Report of Stephen D. Prowse, Ph.D., CFA.

21                  Defendant contends sealing the exhibits is necessary because each report contains 22 sensitive information ViaSat has deemed "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS'
23 EYES ONLY" as well as information that is Third Party Highly Confidential. This 24 includes confidential technical, business and financial information on product sales,

1 royalty payments, assessments on the value of the technology at issue, Acacia's alleged
2 trade secrets, and ViaSat's accused products. However, as discussed supra, Defendant's 3 reasoning is generalized with no "particularized showing" of "specific prejudice or 4 harm." Moreover, Defendant fails to explain why multiple pages of non-confidential
5 information should be sealed. Without more, the request to seal cannot be granted.

6 Exhibit 49 is a copy of an Acacia Presentation entitled "AC400 Project Review."
7 It contains technical descriptions of Acacia's accused products and related technology
8 and business information. Some of the information in the presentation is sealable, such 9 as Acacia's software development status and causes for delays in development and 10 production. But, presumably, such information would be shared with third parties.
11 Moreover, Acacia only makes a blanket assertion the presentation contains information
12 that Acacia has identified as confidential. Such conclusory assertions, unsupported by a
13 declaration or affidavit, fail to satisfy the compelling reasons standard. See Cohen, 2016
14 WL 3036302, at *5.

15 Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Defendants Motion to 16 Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Motion and Exhibit 16 and 43-48 to the 17 Declaration in support filed under seal.<sup>30</sup> The Court further DENIES Defendant's
18 request to Seal Exhibits 2, 14-15, 42, and 49.

19 4. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/2/18 – (Doc. No. 90.)

20 Motion for Summary Judgment

21 Defendant seeks to file under seal portions of its Motion for Summary Judgment
22 ("Motion") in Support of Acacia's Motion for Summary Judgment that ViaSat Lacks 23 Trade Secret Rights and Exhibits 3, 10, 14-16, 21, 26, 50-63, 66, 70-79, 82-86, and 88 to 24 the Fourth Declaration of Stuart V. C. Duncan Smith in Support of their Motion.<sup>31</sup> The

26
27 <sup>30</sup> See Doc. Nos. 85; 85-16; 85-43 to 85-48.
28 <sup>31</sup> Defendant simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Motion with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 93.)

1 Court finds that Defendant has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions
2 of the Motion and Exhibits 3, 10, 16, 21, 26, 50-63, 66, 70-79, 82-86, and 88 that contain 3 business, financial and technical information that, if disclosed, would place the 4 designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

5 The Court is not persuaded the information contained in Exhibits 14 and 15
6 warrants entirely sealing both reports. Exhibit 14 is a copy of the Rebuttal Report of 7 Professor Ivan Djordjevic, Ph.D.; Exhibit 15 is a copy of the Expert Report of Dr.
8 Alexander Vardy. Defendant alleges both exhibits contain sensitive information that 9 ViaSat designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”
10 This includes discussions of Acacia’s alleged trade secrets, ViaSat’s accused products
11 and technical information both parties have identified as confidential. However, as 12 discussed supra, this explanation is insufficient to justify sealing each report entirely.
13 Portions of the exhibits are sealable, but not the entire reports.

14 Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part Defendants Motion to 15 Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Motion and Exhibits 3, 10, 16, 21, 26, 50-63, 66,
16 70-79, 82-86, and 88 to the Declaration in support filed under seal.<sup>32</sup> The Court further 17 DENIES Defendants request to Seal Exhibits 14 and 15.

18 5. Motion to File Under Seal, 2/13/18 – (Doc. No. 107.)

19 Reply in Support of Motion for Partial Summary Judgment

20 Defendant seeks to file under seal portions of its Reply (“Reply”) in Support of 21 Acacia’s Motion for Summary Judgment Regarding Damages.<sup>33</sup> The Court finds that 22 Defendant has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those portions of the Reply that 23 contain business, financial and technical trade secret information that, if disclosed, would 24 place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

27 <sup>32</sup> See Doc. Nos. 91; 91-1 to 91-18; 91-23; 91-27 to 91-59.

(Doc. No. 109.)

2 the Reply filed under seal.<sup>34</sup>

3            6.    Motion to File Under Seal, 2/16/18 – (Doc. No. 117.)

4                    Notice of Supplemental Evidence in Support of Motion to Compel

5        Defendant seeks to file under seal portions of Acacia's (a) Opposition to ViaSat's
6 Motion to Exclude Expert Testimony; (b) Opposition to ViaSat's Motion for Summary
7 Judgment on Acacia's Counterclaim for Patent Misappropriation; (c) Opposition to 8 ViaSat's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment; (d) Reply in Support of Acacia's Motion
9 for Summary Judgment regarding No Liability (collectively "Memoranda"), and Exhibits
10 90-94, 96-97, 102-106, 112-138 to Declarations of Stuart V.C. Duncan Smith in 11 connection with the memoranda.<sup>35</sup> The Court finds that Defendant has narrowly tailored 12 its request to seal to only those portions of the aforementioned memoranda and Exhibits 13 90-94, 96-97, 102-106, 112-118, and 120-138 that contain business, financial and 14 technical trade secret information that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a
15 competitive disadvantage.

16        The Court does not find Defendant has presented sufficient information to justify 17 sealing Exhibit 119. Exhibit 119 is a copy of the Expert Report of Dr. Paul R. Pruncal.
18 Defendant submitted Exhibit 119 in its entirety and seeks to seal it alleging it contains 19 sensitive information Acacia has designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—
20 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." This includes discussion of Acacia's alleged trade 21 secrets, ViaSat's accused products and technical information Acacia has identified as 22 confidential. Again, Defendant has failed to make the necessary showing to justify 23 sealing Exhibit 119 entirely. Defendant's explanation is generalized with no
24 "particularized showing" of "specific prejudice or harm." Furthermore, Defendant fails

25
26
27       <sup>34</sup> See Doc. No. 108.

28       <sup>35</sup> Defendant simultaneously filed redacted versions of the Memoranda with the motion to seal. (Doc. No. 119.)

1 to explain why multiple pages of non-confidential information should be sealed. Without
2 more, the request to seal cannot be granted.

3 Therefore, the Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part the Defendants Motion
4 to Seal. The Court hereby ORDERS the Memoranda and Exhibits 90-94, 96-97, 102-
5 106, 112-118, and 120-138 to the Declaration in support filed under seal.<sup>36</sup> The Court
6 further DENIES Defendant's request to seal Exhibit 119.

7. Motion to File Under Seal, 3/5/18 – (Doc. No. 146.)

8 Reply in Support of Motion to Strike and Exclude

9 Defendant seeks to file under seal portions of its Reply ("Reply") in Support of 10 Acacia's Motion Strike and Exclude Certain Opinions of ViaSat's Experts and Exhibit
11 139 to the Ninth Declaration of Stuart V. C. Duncan Smith in Support of that motion.<sup>37</sup>
12 The Court finds that Defendant has narrowly tailored its request to seal to only those 13 portions of the Reply and Exhibit 139 that contain business, financial and technical trade
14 secret information that, if disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive
15 disadvantage.

16 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Defendants Motion to Seal. The Court hereby 17 ORDERS the Reply and Exhibit 139 to the Declaration in support filed under seal.<sup>38</sup>

18. Motion to File Under Seal, 3/12/18 – (Doc. No. 154.)

19 Reply in Support of Motion for Summary Judgment

25 to 118-118; 118-120 to 118-138.

26<sup>37</sup> Defendant simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Reply with the motion to seal.
(Doc. No. 148.)

27<sup>38</sup> See Doc. No. 147; 147-139.

28<sup>39</sup> Defendant simultaneously filed a redacted version of the Reply with the motion to seal.
(Doc. No. 156.)

1 finds that Defendant has narrowly tailored its request to seal portions to only those 2 portions of Reply that contain business, financial and technical information that, if
 3 disclosed, would place the designating party at a competitive disadvantage.

4 Therefore, the Court GRANTS Defendants Motion to Seal. The Court hereby 5 ORDERS the Reply filed under seal.<sup>40</sup>

6 III. Conclusion

7 In sum, the Court finds that a majority of the parties' various motions to seal have 8 been narrowly tailored such that they do not unnecessarily impede upon the public's 9 ability to understand the nature of the proceedings and the factual basis for the parties'
 10 claims. As such and in light of the aforementioned compelling reasons justifying sealing, 11 the Court GRANTS the motions to seal as described above and as identified by the 12 following table in its entirety. Furthermore, any and all documents the Court declined to 13 seal shall be filed in the public record accordingly.
